

Introduction to Law

Law is a system of rules created and enforced through social or governmental institutions to regulate behavior. It ensures justice, order, and the peaceful coexistence of individuals in society.

Branches of law include:

- Criminal Law: Concerned with acts considered harmful to society.
- Civil Law: Deals with disputes between individuals and organizations.
- Constitutional Law: Governs the structure and function of government.
- Administrative Law: Relates to government agencies.

Understanding law helps individuals know their rights and responsibilities, and promotes fair treatment and equality in society.
